IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, Plaintiff, vs. CODY J. ALEXANDER, Defendant.	)	CRIMINAL NO. 3:16-cr-30074-MJR

STIPULATION OF FACTS

Comes now Donald S. Boyce, United States Attorney for the Southern District of Illinois through Ranley R. Killian, Assistant U.S. Attorney for this District, and herewith enter into the following Stipulation of Facts with the Defendant, Cody J. Alexander (hereinafter "Defendant"), represented by his attorney, Daniel G. Cronin, pertaining to the conduct of the Defendant charged in the indictment in this case and the relevant conduct of the defendant within the scope of U.S.S.G. § 6B1.3.

1. Between December 8, 2015, and December 15, 2015, the Defendant was employed by Direct Mail Services ("DMS"), a contractor for the United States Postal Service.

2. As an employee of DMS, the Defendant was tasked with transporting mail for the United States Postal Service.

3. During the course of the Defendant's employment with DMS, he stole over 19 pieces of United States mail from his route, including parcels and boxes.

4. The Defendant opened the various pieces of mail and packages that he had stolen.

5. The Defendant pawned some of the items contained in some of the U.S. mail packages he had stolen, including a plastic cell phone case, headphones, and jewelry.

6. The Defendant attempted to sell some of the items he unpackaged from the pieces of U.S. mail and packages he stole, including two adult NorthFace (brand) jackets priced at $199.00 each, one child-size NorthFace (brand) jacket, and one pair of Nike (brand) tennis shoes.

7. Some of the United States mail and packages that the Defendant stole entered the stream of mail at the post office in Vandalia, Illinois, which is in the Southern District of Illinois.
